INTO BRONTË COUNTRY

Take Mainline M4 over to Keighley to enjoy a great day out in Brontë country, discovering all about the famous Brontë sisters or enjoying a ride on a heritage railway line. Brontëbus runs every 20 minutes between Keighley and Haworth and every hour to Stanbury or Hebden Bridge. Buy a Daytripper and get unlimited bus travel all day.

With its narrow, steep Main Street, Haworth is forever associated with the Brontë sisters, who wrote most of their famous works at Haworth Parsonage, now a museum.

Stand in the very dining room where the sisters did most of their writing. There's a gift shop, too, with lots of Brontë memorabilia and souvenirs.

Get money off with Transdev Treats - ask the bus driver for a voucher.

Get behind a hissing steam engine or a purring heritage diesel and enjoy a nostalgic train ride on this 5-mile branch line built in 1867 to serve the mills and villages of the Worth Valley.

There are over 30 locos, from little industrial tank engines to impressive main line brutes. There's plenty to see and do as well train rides, with special events all through the year.

Get 20% off return tickets* with Transdev Treats - ask the bus driver for a voucher.

EAST RIDDLESDEN HALL

Jump on the M4 to head over to Keighley. It's a great ride getting there with wonderful views on the way.

As well good shops to entice you in the busy town centre, take a short bus ride on the Shuttle (8 minutes away and buses run every 10 minutes) to East Riddlesden Hall, a rather fine 17th-century former merchant's house now owned by the National Trust.
